First Grade

December 6-10, 2010

Reading

We will be starting a new theme this week called I Think I Can. This group of stories focuses on ways we can create something new, solve problems, and dream our own dreams. This weeks story is called "I am a Butterfly." Our phonics sound for the week is /ch/ spelling ch, and tch. Our words to remember this week are: air, animals, around, fly, live, soon, and turns. The comprehension skill that we will focus on this week is predicting outcomes.

Language Arts

We will continue learning about irregular verbs. This week the students will learn about: do, did, see, saw, say, and, said. They will also learn about the contractions don't and didn't.

Social Studies

Students will learn about different types of landforms and bodies of water.
