Dear Parents,

We will be having our first Social Studies test on Tuesday. The test is fill-in-the-blank, multiple choice, and matching. The students will be given a study guide on Friday, and I would suggest that they start looking it over on the weekend. There are many definitions in this review chapter and waiting until Monday evening would be a mistake.

We have been having a few disrespect issues with the fourth grade class when they are going to milk break, lunch, recess, music, and P.E. Mr. Toeben has come into the classroom to talk to the students. I have also had several conversations with them about their lack of respect. I told them last week that there would start being unpleasant consequences if I keep receiving these reports. I am asking all of you to please have a discussion about manners and respect with your child. I have decided that the next time this happens, the disrespectful student will spend an entire week with me during all of their play times. During this time, they will be writing the meaning of several words from a dictionary.

Thanks,

Mrs. Hegger
